

English 1 Midterm Review Guide

Literature

You should be familiar with the important characters, themes, plots, authors, class focus of each of the following works we have studied.

- * Speak
- * To Kill a Mockingbird
- * "The Most Dangerous Game"
- * "Harrison Bergeron"
- * "The Scarlet Ibis"
- * "A Meeting in The Dark"

Characters

You should be familiar with each of the following characters, including his or her role and relevance in the story/play/novel he or she appeared in.

- * Melinda
- * Andy Evans
- * The Beast
- * Heather
- * Nicole
- * Rachel
- * Mr. Neck
- * Hairwoman
- * Principal Principal
- * David Petrakis
- * Atticus
- * Scout
- * Jem
- * Arthur Radley
- * Nathan Radley
- * Ms. Maudie Atkinson
- * Miss Stephanie Crawford
- * Mrs. Dubose
- * Tom Robinson
- * Mayella Ewell
- * Bob Ewell
- * Mr. Dolphus Raymond
- * Aunt Alexandria
- * Calpurnia
- * Arthur Cunningham
- * Mr. Cunningham
- * Heck Tate
- * Dill
- * Harrison
- * George
- * Hazel
- * Diana Moon Glampers
- * Rainsford
- * General Zaroff
- * Ivan
- * Doodle
- * Brother
- * Wamuhu
- * John
- * Irimu

Literary Terms

You should be familiar with each of the following literary periods and literary terms.

- * Theme
- * Symbolism
- * Characterization
- * Internal Conflict
- * External Conflict
- * Context
- * Point of View

Grammar & Writing

- * Parts of Speech
- * Pronoun Antecedents
- * Book Reviews
- * "You"
- * Subject/Verb Agreement
- * Who vs. Whom
- * That vs. Which
- * Nouns (Case, etc.)
- * Writing numbers

Vocabulary

All of the vocabulary from lists 1-8 should be reviewed. You are responsible for knowing spelling and definition only, however, you are expected to be able to use all vocabulary words in sentences and recognize if any are used incorrectly. (As the wrong part of speech)